

Conference Objectives

1. Describe the impact of bone development through the continuum of life.
2. Discuss the measures available for preventing VTE in the post-skeletal fracture patient.
3. Correlate how crush injuries could result in the development of compartment syndrome.
4. Identify two ways to deal with the stress of being an orthopedic trauma care provider.
5. Recognize the specific characteristics of the reverse total shoulder replacement for treatment of shoulder injuries.
6. Discuss pain management techniques specific to the orthopedic trauma patient.
7. Describe the various orthopedic injuries and treatment that resulted from the recent Haiti earthquake.